| Being aware of all the dangers swimming on the Internet Your role will be to help create an Internet safety brochure that will be passed out during events here at McHenry Middle School, such as conferences and sporting events. The goal will be to research various dangers that can be found when using the Internet and work with a group to generate a brochure. Your brochure will be broken down into 6 different categories that will provide information on being safe. WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW TO BE SUCCESSFUL: Use the following check list to help you determine what you need to include in your Web Safety Project. - Personal Privacy - Personal Privacy - Personal Privacy - Online Predators - Website Credibility - Know the Law - 10 Common Sense Tips - Each section needs to have at least 5 different facts or statements - Each section needs to have at least 1 picture - Fach section needs to have a part that tells people where they can get more information on that topic Requirements - Each section should have a title - Each section needs to contain proper spelling of all information Formatting - Each section should have bold or underline words or statements that express something is important and needs to be read carefully - Each section needs to have a clear and readable font that can be easily read and understood - Brochure needs to contain all group members Brochure Brochure and the page with title - Brochure needs to contain one central image on the cover - Brochure should have a small table of contents under the title with a list of what information is inside the brochure - Each section has a note worksheet filled out - Each section has a note worksheet filled out - Each section notes have been signed off by 2 other members of the group after the information has been gathered - Each section notes have been signed off by 2 other members of the group after the information has been gathered - Each section notes were created by using 2 different sources and both of those sources have be | DUE DA | ΤΕ: NAME: | | | | | |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--|--|--|--|--|
| Your role will be to help create an Internet safety brochure that will be passed out during events here at McHenry Middle School, such as conferences and sporting events. The goal will be to research various dangers that can be found when using the Internet and work with a group to generate a brochure. Your brochure will be broken down into 6 different categories that will provide information on being safe. WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW TO BE SUCCESSFUL: Use the following check list to help you determine what you need to include in your Web Safety Project. Personal Privacy - Personal Privacy - Cyber-Bullying - Online Predators - Website Credibility - Know the Law - 10 Common Sense Tips - Each section needs to have at least 5 different facts or statements - Each section should have a brief definition of the topic - Each section needs to have at least 1 picture - Each section needs to have a part that tells people where they can get more information on that topic - Each section needs to oave a part that tells people where they can get more information on that topic - Each section needs to contain proper spelling of all information Formatting - Each section needs to oracle and readable font that can be easily read and understood - Brochure needs to contain all group members Brochure - Brochure should have a title page with title - Brochure should have a small table of contents under the title with a list of what information is inside the brochure - Each section notes have been signed off by 2 other members of the group after the information has been gathered - Each section notes have been signed off by 2 other members of the group after the information has been gathered - Each section notes were created by using 2 different sources and both of those sources have been written down. REMEMBER: More then one topic can fit on single section of the brochure, and that reference sections can be combined to a single source if it works | Look Before You Log-On | | | | | | |
| at McHenry Middle School, such as conferences and sporting events. The goal will be to research various dangers that can be found when using the Internet and work with a group to generate a brochure. Your brochure will be broken down into 6 different categories that will provide information on being safe. WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW TO BE SUCCESSFUL: Use the following check list to help you determine what you need to include in your Web Safety Project. - Personal Privacy - Personal Privacy - Cyber-Bullying Sections - - Online Predators - Website Credibility - Know the Law - 10 Common Sense Tips - Fach section needs to have at least 5 different facts or statements Section - Fach section needs to have at least 1 picture - Fach section needs to have a part that tells people where they can get more information on that topic - Each section needs to have a part that tells people where they can get more information on that topic - Each section should have a title - Fach section needs to contain proper spelling of all information Formatting - - Each section needs to contain proper spelling of all information Formatting - - Each section needs to be read carefully - Fach section needs to bave a clear and readable font that can be easily read and understood - Brochure needs to contain all group members - Brochure should have a stitle page with title - Brochure should have a small table of contents under the title with a list of what information is inside the brochure - Brochure should have a small table of contents under the title with a list of what information is inside the brochure - Each section notes have been signed off by 2 other members of the group after the information has been gathered - Each section notes were created by using 2 different sources and both of those sources have been written down. REMEMBER: More then one topic can fit on single section of the brochure, and that reference sections can be combined to a single source if it works | ** | | | | | | |
| Use the following check list to help you determine what you need to include in your Web Safety Project. -Personal Privacy -Personal Privacy -Cyber-Bullying -Online Predators -Website Credibility -Know the Law -10 Common Sense Tips -Each section needs to have at least 5 different facts or statements -Each section in needs to have at least 1 picture -Each section needs to have a part that tells people where they can get more information on that topic -Each section needs to contain proper spelling of all information - Each section should have a title - Each section should have bold or underline words or statements that express something is important and needs to be read carefully - Each section needs to contain all group members - Brochure needs to contain all group members - Brochure should have a small table of contents under the title with a list of what information is inside the brochure - Bach section has a note worksheet filled out - Each section notes have been signed off by 2 other members of the group after the information has been gathered - Each section notes were created by using 2 different sources and both of those sources have been written down. REMEMBER: More then one topic can fit on single section of the brochure, and that reference sections can be combined to a single source if it works | at McHenry M dangers that ca | iddle School, such as conferences and sporting events. The goal will be to research various n be found when using the Internet and work with a group to generate a brochure. Your | | | | | |
| Personal Privacy - Cyber-Bullying Sections Online Predators - Website Credibility - Know the Law - 10 Common Sense Tips - Each section needs to have at least 5 different facts or statements - Each section needs to have at least 1 picture - Each section needs to have a part that tells people where they can get more information on that topic - Each section needs to have a part that tells people where they can get more information on that topic - Each section needs to contain proper spelling of all information - Each section should have bold or underline words or statements that express something is important and needs to be read carefully - Each section needs to contain all group members - Brochure needs to contain all group members - Brochure needs to contain one central image on the cover - Brochure should have a small table of contents under the title with a list of what information is inside the brochure - Each section has a note worksheet filled out - Each section ontains 10 different facts or statements for that section - Each section notes have been signed off by 2 other members of the group after the information has been gathered - Each section notes were created by using 2 different sources and both of those sources have been written down. REMEMBER: More then one topic can fit on single section of the brochure, and that reference sections can be combined to a single source if it works | | WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW TO BE SUCCESSFUL: | | | | | |
| -10 Common Sense Tips -Each section needs to have at least 5 different facts or statements -Each section needs to have a brief definition of the topic -Each section needs to have at least 1 picture -Each section needs to have a part that tells people where they can get more information on that topic -Each section needs to contain proper spelling of all information -Each section should have a title -Each section needs to contain proper spelling of all information -Each section should have bold or underline words or statements that express something is important and needs to be read carefully -Each section needs to have a clear and readable font that can be easily read and understood -Brochure needs to contain all group members -Brochure should have a title page with title -Brochure needs to contain one central image on the cover -Brochure should have a small table of contents under the title with a list of what information is inside the brochure -Each section has a note worksheet filled out -Each section contains 10 different facts or statements for that section -Each section notes have been signed off by 2 other members of the group after the information has been gathered -Each section notes were created by using 2 different sources and both of those sources have been written down. REMEMBER: More then one topic can fit on single section of the brochure, and that reference sections can be combined to a single source if it works | Brochure | -Personal Privacy -Cyber-Bullying -Online Predators | | | | | |
| Formatting - Each section needs to contain proper spelling of all information - Each section should have bold or underline words or statements that express something is important and needs to be read carefully - Each section needs to have a clear and readable font that can be easily read and understood - Brochure needs to contain all group members - Brochure should have a title page with title - Brochure needs to contain one central image on the cover - Brochure should have a small table of contents under the title with a list of what information is inside the brochure - Each section has a note worksheet filled out - Each section contains 10 different facts or statements for that section - Each section notes have been signed off by 2 other members of the group after the information has been gathered - Each section notes were created by using 2 different sources and both of those sources have been written down. REMEMBER: More then one topic can fit on single section of the brochure, and that reference sections can be combined to a single source if it works | Section Requirements - | -10 Common Sense Tips -Each section needs to have at least 5 different facts or statements -Each section should have a brief definition of the topic -Each section needs to have at least 1 picture -Each section needs to have a part that tells people where they can get more information | | | | | |
| Format - Brochure should have a title page with title Format - Brochure needs to contain one central image on the cover - Brochure should have a small table of contents under the title with a list of what information is inside the brochure -Each section has a note worksheet filled out Section Notes - Each section contains 10 different facts or statements for that section -Each section notes have been signed off by 2 other members of the group after the information has been gathered -Each section notes were created by using 2 different sources and both of those sources have been written down. REMEMBER: More then one topic can fit on single section of the brochure, and that reference sections can be combined to a single source if it works | Section Formatting - | Each section needs to contain proper spelling of all information Each section should have bold or underline words or statements that express something is important and needs to be read carefully | | | | | |
| Section Notes - -Each section contains 10 different facts or statements for that section -Each section notes have been signed off by 2 other members of the group after the information has been gathered -Each section notes were created by using 2 different sources and both of those sources have been written down. REMEMBER: More then one topic can fit on single section of the brochure, and that reference sections can be combined to a single source if it works | Brochure Format - | Brochure should have a title page with title Brochure needs to contain one central image on the cover Brochure should have a small table of contents under the title with a list of what | | | | | |
| can be combined to a single source if it works | Section Notes - | -Each section contains 10 different facts or statements for that section -Each section notes have been signed off by 2 other members of the group after the information has been gathered -Each section notes were created by using 2 different sources and both of those sources have | | | | | |
| CDOUD NAME (DOLE) | .  | | | | | | |
| GROUP NAMES/ROLES | | | | | | | |

| Name: |
|-------|
|-------|

GRADING RUBRIC: Web Safety Brochure

| CATEGORY | 4 | 3 | 2 | 1 |
|--------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| SECTION WORKSHEET: | All requirements have been met in regards to the role worksheet: 10 statements written, 2 sources have been used and written down, worksheet is completely filled out, and answers have been checked and signed by another group member (2x) | 3 of the 4 requirements have been met in regards to the role worksheet: 10 statements written, 2 sources have been used and written down, worksheet is completely filled out, and answers have been checked and signed by another group member (2x) | 2 of the 4 requirements have been met in regards to the role worksheet: 10 statements written, 2 sources have been used and written down, worksheet is completely filled out, and answers have been checked and signed by another group member (2x) | 1 of the 4 requirements have been met in regards to the role worksheet: 10 statements written, 2 sources have been used and written down, worksheet is completely filled out, and answers have been checked and signed by another group member (2x) |
| SECTION REQUIREMENTS:/4 (x2)/8 | All requirements have been met: each section has a definition, each section has at least 5 statements, each section has at least 1 picture, each section has a reference section | 3 of the 4 requirements have been met: each section has a definition, each section has at least 5 statements, each section has at least 1 picture, each section has a reference section | 2 of the 4 requirements have been met: each section has a definition, each section has at least 5 statements, each section has at least 1 picture, each section has a reference section | 1 of the 4 requirements have been met: each section has a definition, each section has at least 5 statements, each section has at least 1 picture, each section has a reference section |
| SECTION FORMATTING:/4 | All requirements have been met for each section: each section has a title, no spelling mistakes are found in any section, each section contains bold or underlined information, and each section uses a easy to read font | 3 of the 4 requirements have been met for each section: each section has a title, no spelling mistakes are found in any section, each section contains bold or underlined information, and each section uses a easy to read font | 2 of the 4 requirements have been met for each section: each section has a title, no spelling mistakes are found in any section, each section contains bold or underlined information, and each section uses a easy to read font | 1 of the 4 requirements have been met for each section: each section has a title, no spelling mistakes are found in any section, each section contains bold or underlined information, and each section uses a easy to read font |
| BROCHURE FORMATTING: | All requirements have been met for the brochure: brochure has a title, each members of the group are on the cover, cover has a central image, and cover contains a small table of contents | 3 of the 4 requirements have been met for the brochure: brochure has a title, each members of the group are on the cover, cover has a central image, and cover contains a small table of contents | 2 of the 4 requirements have been met for the brochure: brochure has a title, each members of the group are on the cover, cover has a central image, and cover contains a small table of contents | 1 of the 4 requirements have been met for the brochure: brochure has a title, each members of the group are on the cover, cover has a central image, and cover contains a small table of contents |

| Overall Appeal: | | | |
|-----------------|--|--------|-----|
| | | TOTAL: | /25 |

TEACHER COMMENTS: